ROLE OF DIGITAL AS WELL AS PRINTED SOURCES IN SOCIAL SCIENCES

ABOUT SEMINAR

Role of digital sources in social sciences with the advent of Internet absolute scenario of education has changed all the world over in two decades. Initially all the important journals went online with back files. Now almost all the sources like Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, Thesauruses, Statistical Reports, Maps, Manuscripts, Biographies etc., have gone online. Trend of e-books has developed in advanced countries but it is very slow in developing countries. E resources in social sciences are increasing at rapid pace. Library professionals, academia and students must be aware of latest e-resources.

OBJECTIVES OF SEMINAR

The main objective of the seminar is to provide a platform for speakers and presenters to share new concepts, best practices, knowledge, experience, innovative models, and solution, with a focus on promoting effective application of technology in libraries to provide quality services to the patrons.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Librarians, professional library staff, knowledge seekers, publishers, content management experts, information management experts. IT professionals, Information officers, knowledge centre managers and students.

ABOUT LIBRARY

Baring Union Christian College library was established on 15 January 1960, to glory the presence of God and for the advancement of learning. The college library building is marvelous and a masterpiece of art and architecture. By considering, its worldwide achievement and alumni, management apprehend and enhance the value of library. Under this context B.U.C College library is renamed as "Dr. Ram Singh Library", in memory of Ex. Principal Dr. Ram Singh. He was the first man who provided open self system in the library. Dr. Ram Singh Library is one of the best libraries in our region. The college library is well deemed for its vast collection of books. The three storey library building has a seating capacity for 400 students at a time. The building equips all amenities for serious reading. At present, the library has more than 80,597 books on various branches of knowledge; it receives 100 journals/Magazines & 14 daily newspapers. Besides this, it has a good collection of maps & non-book reading material. The library collection is well classified, catalogued & kept on open shelves in a systematic way. The students have full freedom to take any book of their choice from the shelves, read and get it issued for home use. It is member of National Library Information Services Infrastructure for Scholarly Content. We have membership of (N-LIST), Our library has unique collection of books approximately 10 decades old.
